

Work-in-Progress Sessions ProgramModel Transfer in Science
Autumn/Winter 2025/26Time: Friday, 3:30-5:00pm CET

Please contact us if you are interested in participating (online option available).

September 26, 2025	Model transfer, generalization, and scientific progress – Edoardo Peruzzi
October 2, 2025 (Thursday)	Model transfer as model construction – Edoardo Peruzzi and Catherine Herfeld
October 10, 2025	Online Workshop Empirical Methods in History and Philosophy of Economics
October 17, 2025	A Snapshot of Economics: Mapping the New Palgrave Dictionary and its Evolution – Alberto Bartocchini
October 24, 2025 (online)	Harsanyi's Legacy: Bayesian Games and the Transformation of Microeconomic Theory – Edoardo Peruzzi
October 30, 2025 (Thursday)	Mapping game theory in contemporary science – Oliver Budras, Edoardo Peruzzi and Catherine Herfeld
November 7, 2025
November 14, 2025	The Challenge of Discipline-Specific Tractability in Model Transfer – Murat Bakeev
November 21, 2025	Translators, Methodologies, and the Structure of Scientific Communities in a Bandit Model – Bele Wollesen
November 28, 2025	Model transfer and deidealization – Edoardo Peruzzi and Catherine Herfeld
December 5, 2025 (4pm)	Challenges to model transfer – Catherine Herfeld and Dunja Šešelja
December 9, 2025 (Tuesday, 2pm)	Thick concepts and model transfer – Bele Wollesen
December 19, 2025	Non-representational uses of analogy in scientific modeling – Peter Tan

January 9, 2025	Economists Surrounded by Other Disciplines: A Computational Analysis of the Santa Fe Institute Working Papers – Murat Bakcev
January 16, 2026	Awakening sleeping beauties in economics: the role of model transfer – Edoardo Peruzzi, Catherine Herfeld and Malte Doehne
January 30, 2026	Making the case for an integrated approach in the history of economics – Edoardo Peruzzi, Catherine Herfeld